

Your Move-Out Checklist — Barcelona

Since you're moving out in Barcelona soon, here's the full picture — deposit, admin, belongings and timing — plus what we'll cover together on your free call.

Protecting your deposit

- Document the apartment's condition before you start packing, not the night before handover.
- Know exactly what counts as “normal wear and tear” vs. chargeable damage.
- Get a signed check-out report — this is the single biggest factor in deposit disputes.

Moving admin, handled

- Book your internet cancellation/transfer at least 2 weeks ahead — providers are slower than you'd expect.
- Make a list of everywhere your current address lives: bank, insurer, Seguridad Social, subscriptions, deliveries.
- Redirect or update your correspondence before you lose access to your old mailbox.

Furniture and belongings

- Decide early what's coming with you, what's being sold, donated, or stored — leaving it for the last week is the most common mistake.
- If you need short-term storage or a quick sale, we can point you to trusted partners.

If you're leaving earlier than planned

- Check your contract for early-termination clauses and any penalty.
- Understand what happens to your deposit if you break the minimum term.
- A short call can save you from a costly misstep here.

On your free 15-minute call, we'll

- Look at your actual contract and situation, not a generic script.
 - Walk through what to prepare before your handover date.
 - Give you a clear, personal action plan.
-

This is general information, not legal advice. Rules vary by region and contract — check your specific situation.